

Other parents who spoke to this reporter expressed “total satisfaction” with the intervention of Project Aid The Gambia.

Mr Bah said the project would do everything possible to complement government’s efforts through health delivery services.

Author: Abdoulie Nyockeh

HOME \ ARCHIVE \ ARTS AND CULTURE \ BIBLICAL REFLECTION \ THE BITE \ BOOK REVIEW \ CHRISTIAN PANORAMA \ COURTS \ DALASI EXCHANGE RATE \ EDITORIAL \ FOR THE RECORD \ HEADLINES \ HEALTH \ MUSLIM HANDS \ NATIONAL NEWS \ OPINION \ SHE SHE SHE \ SPORTS \ YOUTH FORUM

About the Point Newspaper
Contact Us

© Copyright The Point Newspaper. All rights reserved.

Administered by Mary Kanu-Thomas Njie & Marie Chery Gomez.

Website created with Lara by Geographical Media